BAN B. TOWTHDRAW CHARGES ON HENRY

Czar of American League Will Not Take Action Against Player.

Special to The Washington Herald.
New York, Feb. 14.—A tip was handed out along Peacock Alley, last night, that Ban B. Johnson, the president of the American League, will withdraw his charges made against John Henry, the catcher of the Washington Baseball Club, when the American League magnates go into session at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel tomorrow. Henry was charged with advising the players of the major leagues to hold out on their contracts and to follow Davy Fultz, of the players' fraternity, in his strike movement.

No reasons were given for Johnson withdrawing his threat to throw Henry out of organized baseball, but it was quietly stated that the big czar was a little afraid of the sentiment that has arisen throughout the major league cities against his action in reference to player Henry.

MARYLAND ATHLETES WILL FEATURE MEET

Many Prominent Baltimore S. A. Athletes in G. U. Games.

Maryland athletes are to predominate in practically every event on the program of the indoor meet to be held by Georgetown University, at Convention Hall, Saturday night.

John Hopkins University, Maryland Agriculture College, Baltimore Cross Country Club, Baltimore Canoe Club, Baltimore Swimming Club, West Park Recreation Center and Arundel Boat Club are the Maryland schools and clubs that have entered athletes in the different events.

The latest to forward a batch of entries to Manager Devlin, from Baltimore, is the West Park Recreation Center. Among those who will represent the West Park aggregation in the games will be Edwin Schmidt, the one mile runner; Walter Korman, in the 440 and 880; A. Miller, in the 660 mile and Harry Korman, in the 880.

Patrons of this indoor meet will see for the first time P. C. McGrath, the Lehigh University star, who on Tuesday night ran for the Boston A. A. at the New York A. C. games. Teamed with the celebrated Caldwell, Rose and Mahoney, this quartette ran away with the fast winged-foot four.

McGrath is one of the best sprinters in the summer. He will, no doubt, run last on Saturday night against Hector Aury, the blue and gray flyer.

The Lehigh team this year is considered one of the best in the country. Bethlehemites expect to carry off the four gold plaques.

The games will start promptly at 7:30 owing to the many relays to be run off. Manager Devlin has promised that the last event will be over by 11:30.

The meet this year will be one of the best ever held by Georgetown, as the teams are well matched and the finishes will no doubt be very close.
